

Course-specific competences

Course code: TKV18INo1

Course name: Introduction to UAS Studies

Competences Criteria for Assessment

Passed
Branch-knowledge	Student has knowledge about own UAS and branch.
Personal responsibility and goal-setting	Student reflects over his studies, plans and personal goals and understands his individual responsibility in successfully completing the studies.
Learning styles and study techniques	The student knows about different learning styles, has identified his own learning style and basis for efficient studies. The student is able to create own knowledge and learning spaces.
Cooperation skills	The student recognizes the benefits of cooperation with other students. He understands his impact on others in the study group and the importance of having a positive and supportive atmosphere.
Life-long learning	The student recognizes the importance of personal development in relation to lifelong learning and career.

Made by:

NN

Checked by:

UA

Approved by:

AC

Valid in curriculum

2018